

Newsletter for Friday, January 28, 2022

Parshas Mishpatim

Announcements

- Mazal Tov to the Cheplowitz family on the engagement of their daughter, Kayla.
- Welcome to our new office manager, Rebecca Wiesenthal!
- Happy birthday to Morah Naomi. Mazal Tov!

Thank you's

- Thank you to Natan Hakimi for doing an errand for the school.

Parshas Mishpatim Questions

1. What is the name of this week's Parsha? (Mishpatim!)
2. How many Mitzvos are there in the Torah? (613)
3. If we hurt someone, what are some ways that we can make it better?
4. Are we allowed to take things that don't belong to us? (No!) What is that called? (Stealing!)
5. What school rule will help us remember to not steal? ("Ask permission to touch!")
6. If we steal 1 dollar from someone, how much do we need to pay them back? (2 dollars)
7. If someone asks us to take care of their things while they are gone, what do we need to do? (Take really good care of it!)
8. What school rule will help us remember that Mitzvah? ("No hurting, take care!")
9. It's a mitzvah to tell the Emes. What does Emes mean? (The truth)
10. For six days of the week we ___ and on the seventh day we ___. (work, rest)
11. What's that day called? (Shabbos!)
12. In Eretz Yisroel, for six years the farmers ___ and in the seventh year they ___. (work, rest)
13. What's the seventh year called? (Shmitah!)
14. What two foods can we never eat together? Milk and meat.
15. What are some examples of meat foods? What are some examples of milk/dairy foods?